Roosevelt

You were slowly moving out of sight
We've been lost, calling it a night
If only you could see me now
Tryna make it through it all somehow

I remember it all like yesterday
Looking back, you won't fade away
I know it won't be like the start
Just been wondering when you changed your heart

So come back
And give me a sign of your love
Come back
And give me a sign of your love

So come back
And give me a sign of your love
Come back
And give me a sign of your love

So come back
And give me a sign of your love
Come back
And give me a sign of your love

You were slowly moving out of sight
We've been lost, calling it a night
