

Under the Sun

Roosevelt

Hold me tight
I came all this way to see your eyes
We face the fight
We won't move away from all those highs

And I can't hold back this feeling
Am I losing my control
Let me know if you still mean it
With your body and your soul

I'm calling again 'cause tonight
I'll show you everywhere under the sun
I'm calling again 'cause tonight
I'll show you everywhere under the sun

Don't you know
It's been way too long to stop it now
Don't let go
Take you to a place that you don't know

And I can't hold back this feeling
Am I losing my control
Let me know if you still mean it
With your body and your soul

I'm calling again 'cause tonight
I'll show you everywhere under the sun
I'm calling again 'cause tonight
I'll show you everywhere under the sun

Don't hold back
Don't hold back
Don't hold back
Don't hold back

Don't hold back
Don't hold back
Don't hold back
Don't hold back

I'm calling again 'cause tonight
I'll show you everywhere under the sun
I'm calling again 'cause tonight
I'll show you everywhere under the sun
