

My Name...

Root

When I dance over dying Life and Black Pearls Flow from my empty eyes sockets, is it the Termination ?
My name is DEATH . . .

When I play on the Flute made from your skin-bone, and my jaws are roaring with laughter in neverending smile
is it the Termination ?
My name is DEATH . . .

I'm Immortal by my death
and my realm is borderless
I'm like you all without hearts, without reason
but I'm happy, 'cause my name is DEATH !
is DEATH !
