

BLACK HEARSE

RØRY

It's only love when it fucking hurts
The only lesson that my daddy ever taught me
No, he was never good with words
When he walked out he said "Life begins at 40"
I heard my mother cry herself to sleep
Guess everybody that you love will leave
Well, fuck that life, man, it's never gonna be me
If I love pain then it's never gonna hurt me

So hurt me once, hurt me twice, I like it
Ruin my life, I've already tried it
Put out that cigarette on me till it burns
You know I love how it hurts
Love hurts

Love hurts, you know that love hurts
Love hurts, it really fucking hurts
Love hurts for better or worse
Only getting married if I'm leaving in a black hearse
In a black hearse

I'll be the one objecting at my own wedding
Screaming at myself "How come you didn't learn this lesson?"
It's just oxytocin, it's gonna fuck you up
You're just an addict with a habit for a class A drug

So hurt me once, hurt me twice, I like it
Ruin my life, I've already tried it
Put out that cigarette on me till it burns
You know I love how it hurts
Love hurts

Love hurts, you know that love hurts
Love hurts, it really fucking hurts
Love hurts for better or worse
Only getting married if I'm leaving in a black hearse
In a black hearse
In a black hearse
In a black hearse

Love hurts, you know that love hurts
Love hurts, it really fucking hurts
Love hurts for better or worse
Only getting married if I'm leaving in a black hearse
In a black hearse
In a black hearse
In a black hearse
Only getting married if I'm leaving in a black hearse
