

One Drink Away

RØRY

Woke up in a hotel room with an unopened bottle of red
These sheets they smell brand new and not of sex and cigarettes
Didn't go to a party, didn't take any drugs
Didn't fuck anybody in the toilet of a run down club

I'm happy and sober
But what if I told ya'

I'm only one drink away from 2am mistakes
Threesomes where I don't feel that safe
Four dealers rung, five years undone
Thank God I changed
But I'm only one drink away

Going back to a two-bed flat and I'm not behind on the rent
I got somebody waiting on me and I haven't ruined it yet
I been going to meetings I been keeping it clean
I been waking up scared I got high but it was only a dream

I thought it was over
But what if I told ya'

I'm only one drink away from 2am mistakes
Threesomes where I don't feel that safe
Four dealers rung, five years undone
Thank God I changed
But I'm only one drink away

One thing I've learned is that people change
I walk with my head held high now and I call that grace
Who knew a wreck like me could be saved?
But I'm only one drink away
