

The Atheist

RØRY

You turned an atheist into a prayer
You turned a patriot into a traitor
The person that loved you the most
Into goodbye in a handwritten note

Ooh, I can't wait for you

This is me letting go
Rip you out of my bones
Leave you out in the cold
With everything that you broke
I hope you know

You turned a family home into a crater
You turned your own flesh and blood to a stranger
The words that I wish that you spoke
Turned into glass in the back of my throat

Ooh, I can't pray for you

This is me letting you go
Rip you out of my bones
Leave you out in the cold
With everything that you broke
I hope you know

This is me letting you go
Tear you out of my soul
I swear that God only knows
I swear that God only knows
God only knows
