

Have It All

Roscoe Dash

If there's ever a good time
There's never a good time for you
So I'ma sip on this good wine
And roll up some good pine for you
I said the good girls ain't no fun
The bad bitches have it all
I said the good girls ain't no fun
The bad bitches have it all

Yea good weed white wine
And you know those things
Come alive in the night time
Put them on the cheeks like

Then bitch you get left

You is a life line

Every party take a pic
There is a million here

Cause you and your friends

Cause they all have extensions
She wants it without permission
Cause they know them bad bitch

Fuck the runner ups
See even if she got to fuck the
Runner up to get there

She got it poppin like a pimp with a skank here
What a trip take it from me I've been there
