Spying and I'm high as a kite
And the spike rolled up
And I'm leaning no spider
I might have a party with all hoes
So many hoes where is waldo

My heart only beating for green
Money and weed my el camino
That motor making a scene
I wasn't even trying to be seen
I was just trying to slide off the scene
With a bitch so bad she just mean
With a big ol' ass in that glass house
I put that bitch on them knees
