

Mandolin Man

Rose Cousins

Mandolin man oh won't you dance with me
Always in the band why won't they set you free
Your heart has been broken may be sore
Makes it so hard to give it anymore

My heart's been broken too
Maybe there's nothing we can do

You lean in and they throw to you the stage
It keeps you protected as we call your name
Your heart is on fire your hand on the door
How will it ever know when it can be sure

Well my heart's on fire too
Maybe there is nothing we can do

Play, play, play, play...

Play, play, play, play...

Play, play, play, play...
