

Calling

Rose Tattoo

Five miles deep under water
You hear their voices sing
Surely that must be to every man
A most fantastic thing

Five miles deep under water
You can hear them singing, yeah
Calling, calling

Put away the harpoon gun
You don't need it anymore-ore
All we have for a memory
Is bones washed on the shore

And five miles deep under water
You can hear them singing
Calling, calling, hear 'em calling, hear 'em calling
Five miles deep under water
You can hear 'em sing
Calling, it's a most fantastic thing

Tell me how did we get this far
Are we allowed to lose
Does it come to late we realize
We've lost the chance to choose

Five miles deep under water
You can hear them singing
Calling, calling, calling, hear them, calling
Five miles deep under water
You can hear them sing
Five miles deep under water
Calling, it's a most fantastic thing
Hear 'em calling, calling

Do you hear the-em... sing
Five miles deep under water
Five miles deep under water
Calling, it's a most fantastic thing
Five miles deep under water
Five miles deep under water
Calling
