

Falling

Rose Tattoo

I was never the one to go looking for love
Threw it to the wind trusting heaven above
Heartache and pain, I didn't need it again
But as time goes by, I find that I'm

Falling, falling into your love
Now I'm calling, cause it's never enough
When I make love with you I find that it's true
I'm past the point of no return

I live by the rule that I'm safer alone
Cause love hurts so bad when it's time to let go
Heartache and pain I didn't need it again
But as time goes by, I find that I'm

Falling, falling into your love
Now I'm calling, cause it's never enough
When I make love with you I find that it's true
I'm past the point of no return

Now as time goes by, I find that I'm

Falling, falling into your love
Now I'm calling cause it's never enough
When I make love with you I find that it's true
I'm past the point of no return

Falling, can't you hear me calling
I'm falling, do you hear me calling
I'm falling, can't you see me calling
