

Runaway

Rose Tattoo

A love like ours is slightly out of time, yeah
We need to find a way to set our souls free, yeah
Oh, come away if you wanna know
A perfect place where only love grows

Moon and tide sing the song never ceasing
Sad souls cry our for the love of the sea
Oh, come away if you wanna know
A perfect place where only love grows

(Runaway) and love will grow while we're waiting
(Runaway) find an easier way
(Runaway) from the end of all reason
(Runaway) we gonna do it today

Wakes and wakes, the sea never-ending
Sails in the wind saying "come home to me"
Oh, come away if you wanna know
A perfect place where only love grows

(Runaway) and love will grow while we're waiting
(Runaway) find an easier way
(Runaway) from the end of all reason
(Runaway) gonna do it today

(Runaway) and love will grow while we're waiting
(Runaway) find an easier way
(Runaway) from the end of all reason
(Runaway) gonna do it today
(Runaway) and love will grow while we're waiting
(Runaway) find an easier way
(Runaway) from the end of all reason
(Runaway) gonna do it today
(Runaway) and love will grow while we're waiting
(Runaway) find an easier way
(Runaway) from the end of all reason
(Runaway) we're gonna do it today
