

Sneakers

Rose Villain

My sneakers know you've been lying so we run away
My sneakers know I've been crying they take me away
And I will date a model
Stop chasing after bottles
Before I hit the bottom
I wanna go everywhere
They can take me anywhere

I'll grab my favourite pair
And I'll go out with your friends
I'll be fucking all your best friends
Maybe we'll be even then
You'll die lonely in the end

We were having fun
Thought you were the one

My sneakers know you've been lying so we run away
My sneakers know I've been crying they take me away
My sneakers know you've been lying so we run away
My sneakers know I've been crying they take me away

And I'll marry some rapper
Be happy ever after
And touring down in Paris
We gonna go everywhere
He will take me anywhere

I'll grab my favourite pair
And I'll go out with your friends
And I'll show my ring to your friends
Maybe we'll be even then
You'll die lonely in the end

We were having fun
Thought you were the one
(But you're not the one)

My sneakers know you've been lying so we run away
My sneakers know I've been crying so take me away
My sneakers know you've been lying so we run away
My sneakers know I've been crying so take me away

And even though I am running I am not alone
With my kicks I'm stronger than you'll ever know

Go ahead, you polish my sneakers
Go ahead, you can polish my sneakers... My sneakers know you've been lying so we run away
My sneakers know I've been crying they take me away
And I will date a model
Stop chasing after bottles
Before I hit the bottom
I wanna go everywhere
They can take me anywhere

I'll grab my favourite pair

And I'll go out with your friends
I'll be fucking all your best friends
Maybe we'll be even then
You'll die lonely in the end

We were having fun
Thought you were the one

My sneakers know you've been lying so we run away
My sneakers know I've been crying they take me away
My sneakers know you've been lying so we run away
My sneakers know I've been crying they take me away

And I'll marry some rapper
