

Thanks For Nothing (At All)

Rosemary Clooney

Empty arms, misty eyes
Broken dreams, cloud skies
Thanks a lot, thanks for nothin' at all

Lonely nights, blue despair
I need love, you should care
Thanks for what, thanks for nothin' at all

What did I do to deserve this from you?
Don't you know, can't you see what you've done?
You left my heart just a thing torn apart
Bringing rain to my place in the sun

Useless 'cause, wasted tears
Must forget, could take years
Thanks a lot, thanks for nothin' at all

Useless 'cause, wasted tears
Must forget, could take years
Thanks a lot, thanks for nothin' at all
