

Giving It All Tonight

Roses Are Red

So tell me another story
Make it up as you go
It's alright, we can find a new place to hide, they'll never know
We can wait here till morning
It would be safer then
It's alright, we can find a new place to start again
A new place to begin

Put your arms around me now
Don't turn around
This city's burning to the ground

So we'll drive for days
And I'll take your fear away
And fail I might
But I'm giving it all tonight
Giving it all for you tonight

I am only fearing failure
And everything's on track
We're moving forward never looking back
As long as this will last

Put your arms around me now
Don't turn around
This city's burning to the ground

So we'll drive for days
And I'll take your fear away
And fail I might
But I'm giving it all tonight
Giving it all for you tonight

Searching for our fate
However far away
We're never coming home
And I need to escape
And you need to be saved
We're in this all alone
We're in this all alone

So we'll drive for days
And I'll take your fear away
And fail I might (I'm giving it all tonight)

So we'll drive for days
And I'll take your fear away
And fail I might
But I'm giving it all tonight
We're never gonna need to hide
We're leaving the past behind
Giving it all for you tonight
