

Dancing In A Daydream

Roses & Revolutions

Late night, relapse
Driving steady but I'm ready for the whiplash
Coffee and cigarettes
Almost empty, but we're buzzing from the regret

Just you and me, dancing in a daydream
Just you and me, lost in the clouds
Just you and me, dancing in a daydream
Don't want to wake up right now
Don't want to wake up right now

Barefoot, in tall grass
We've reached the palace, but I'm betting that it won't last
Bright lights and mirror ball
We might be hurting, but I'm ready for the free fall

Just you and me, dancing in a daydream
Just you and me, lost in the clouds
Just you and me, dancing in a daydream
Don't want to wake up right now
Don't want to wake up right now

And if I open my eyes, if I open my eyes
Will it all unravel?
And if I turn the page, if I turn the page
Will I lose my shadow?

And if I open my eyes, if I open my eyes
Will it all unravel?
And if I turn the page, if I turn the page
Will I lose my shadow?

Just you and me, dancing in a daydream
You and me, lost in the clouds
You and me, dancing in a daydream
Don't want to wake up right now

Just you and me, dancing in a daydream
Just you and me, lost in the clouds
Just you and me, dancing in a daydream
Don't want to wake up right now
Don't want to wake up right now
