

i don't have feelings anymore

Roses & Revolutions

I don't have feelings anymore
No, I don't have feelings anymore
I used to be angry, sad and bored
But I don't have feelings anymore

I don't ever speak anymore
No, I don't ever speak anymore
Even if I did, it'd never get heard
I don't ever speak anymore

I swear I'll find a way to fix it soon
So I'll leave a penny in every room
Just to remind me what I left behind
And I can't figure out for the life of me
How the hell I got in so deep
How do I know if I'm still alive

I don't ever dream anymore
No, I don't ever dream anymore
I used to think the world had more in store
But I don't ever dream anymore

I don't ever sleep in my bed
No, I don't ever sleep in my bed
Spend the nights stuck inside my head
I don't ever sleep in my bed

I swear I'll find a way to fix it soon
So I'll leave a penny in every room
Just to remind me what I left behind
And I can't figure out for the life of me
How the hell I got in so deep
How do I know if I'm still alive

I don't have feelings anymore
No, I don't have feelings anymore
I used to be angry, sad and bored
But I don't have feelings anymore
