

People

Rosetta Stone

What on earth has happened to you?
Saw a side I've never set eyes on before
Well no more
If that's what people are for

And I'm so disappointed in you
And I'm so disappointed in you
And I'm so disappointed we're through
And I'll never ever forgive you

You talk in opposites now

Support becomes derision
Suddenly encompass hate
A convenience a quick decision
Is this war?
Well, no more
If that's what people are for
And I'm so disappointed in you
And I'm so disappointed in you
And I'm so disappointed we're through
And I'll never ever forgive you
