

Seeing Ghosts

Rosi Golan

Last night you came, I felt you breezing by
I don't know if you're real or just my mind playing tricks at night

I'm seeing ghosts
everywhere I turn, there you float
and you are more than beautiful, but I've gotta let you, I've gotta let you go

Did you leave those words around my door
Or did I sleep walk and leave myself a note, so I don't feel alone

I'm seeing ghosts
Everywhere I turn, there you float
And you are more than beautiful, but I've gotta let you, I've gotta let you go

The lights are staying on tonight
You won't appear before my eyes
If I can help it I am gonna try to say farewell

I'm seeing ghosts
I'm seeing ghosts
I'm seeing ghosts
But I've gotta let you, I've gotta let you go
