

Underneath

Rosi Golan

You be the first to fall asleep
I'll be the one to turn the key
Close the door, drop the sheet
Waiting for the dream to pull me underneath
Pull me underneath, pull me underneath

You're gone, the nights are longer
If only I was stronger
I wouldn't lie awake
Afraid of the morning after
You never hear me calling
I never see you leaving
I'll never close my eyes
Wait for the dream to come and pull me underneath

Shadows move along the wall
Watch them walking down the hall
Feel the pulse, feel it rise
I'm seeing things, the dream will pull me underneath
Pull me underneath, pull me underneath

You're gone, the nights are longer
If only I was stronger
I wouldn't lie awake
Afraid of the morning after
You never hear me calling
I never see you leaving
I'll never close my eyes
Wait for the dream to come and pull me underneath

Pull me underneath, pull me underneath
Pull me underneath, pull me underneath
Pull me underneath, pull me underneath
Pull me underneath, pull me underneath

You're gone, the nights are longer
If only I was stronger
I wouldn't lie awake
Afraid of the morning after
You never hear me calling
I never see you leaving
I'll never close my eyes
Wait for the dream to come and pull me underneath
