

Bare

Rosie Carney

Left me broken
Smashed like a glass that was
Dropped on the floor
Words you've spoken
Leave marks on my skin
Like a name on the wall

How do you
Sleep right through
Bold and bare
Please take me there

You keep asking
Why have your angels
Left you on your own
Time keeps passing
Stronger the beat of your
Heart grows along as you
Build up your home, you can
Breathe on your own

How do we
Forget dreams
Drunk on air
I try to be there

Please take me there
(Please take me there)
Please take me there
(Please take me there)
Please take me there
(Please take me there)
Please take me there
(Please take me there)

Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
