Rosie Lowe

What did I do?
What's been and gone
You chose to hate
My every bone
So much for playing
Don't mean a thing
Mixed with your poison
Stung by another sting

So tell me
And I'll change me
I'll do all the things you please
So won't you save me?
From these guilty games, you
If you beg, I'm unreleased

What did I do?
Where was it I went from?
You make your list
And then you shoot your guns
So much for love
Where did it go now?
Your jealous tongue
Your mind is full of us

So tell me
And I'll change me, yeah
I'll do all the things you please
So won't you save me?
From these guilty games, you
If you beg, I'm unreleased

You're the jury, I'm the Edison
You've got it all
(Don't you see?)
Still you purchase diamonds if I run
I take it all

So tell me
And I'll change me
I'll do all the things you please
So won't you save me?
From these guilty games, you
If you beg, I'm unreleased

So tell me
And I'll change me, yeah
I'll do anything
If you save me?
From these guilty games, you
You beg, I'm unreleased
