

Gratitudes

Rosie Lowe

I see the setting sun every time I choose
To see the rivers run
To watch the fading moon
So easy to regret and feel all shades of blue
So often I forget to say my daily gratitudes

I need to say my daily gratitudes
You need to say your daily gratitudes
I'm so lucky, I
Say my daily

How much time I waste from going round the shit I didn't do
But baby, I'm just scared when my glass is half full
I guess it's self protect, but I know just what to do
I need to manifest and to shift my neggy attitude

I need to say my daily gratitudes
I need to say my daily gratitudes
I'm so lucky, I
Say my daily gratitudes

I'm so lucky, I, no
Say my daily, oh hmm
Say my daily
