

I'll Be Gone

Rosie Lowe

I love the way you smile
And how strong you seem to be
But I hate not knowing me
When I lose control, dear

I love we're in denial
And the future that we've planned
But I feel the fear creep in
When I'm feeling low, dear

Won't you help me?
Just be patient
Don't let me go
Cause I'm good at running away
Keep your eyes on me
Don't give me a reason to run
Cause I'll be gone
Cause I'll be gone

So on days when I don't know
Will you be patient and keep me from
Cause at the first sign of danger
I will be putting my heels on cause it's easier gone

Won't you help me?
Just be patient
Don't let me go
Cause I'm good at running away
Keep your eyes on me
Don't give me a reason to run
Cause I'll be gone
Cause I'll be gone

I'll be gone
Cause I'll be gone
I'll be gone
Please excuse the mess I make
I'm not used to having company
Cause I'll be gone
Cause I'll be gone
Please excuse the mess I make
I'm not used to having company

Cause I'll be gone
Cause I'll be gone
Cause I'll be gone
Cause I'll be gone
