

Lay Me

Rosie Lowe

There's something you ate in you
There's something you ate in you

Honey, you need to eat sometimes
Take a minute, be with me sometimes
I love it when you do, you do, you do
I don't wanna see you waste your time
Crossed your heart and said you'd pay it mind
Not gonna make you choose

Would you wanna lay me?
Or play me for a fool?
When you're feeling wavy, you say I'm crazy
Well it would be so nice if it was true

There's something you ate in you
There's something you hate in you

Why won't you pick me up instead of picking up?
Tuesday's gonna feel sweeter if you do
You say you're not addicted
You can love it, you can leave it
But you never do
Wouldn't you come to bed if it was true?

There's something you ate in you
There's something you hate in you

Never could say no
Got no self-control
