

Falling

Ross Copperman

Maybe I tried to hard
Maybe I wouldn't let you break my guard
Every little thing you do just feels this holding my heart
And I know somehow

And I falling for the first time in a long time
And everybody knows it, but you
Even the last try to fighting
I can't let you go
'Cause I know it's love, and I'm not given up
I'm not given up

Feels like I'm invisible to you sometimes
Moving like a shadow live in me, behind
Wish that I can really understand
What's on your mind?
'Cause you know, that I've tried

And I falling for the first time in a long time
And everybody knows it, but you
Even the last try to fighting
I can't let you go
'Cause I know it's love, and I'm not given up
No, I'm not given up

Did you see the way I look at you?
Did you even care? Did you feel it too?
Did you hear me crying?
And I for you all the lonely nights, where you crying too

Yeah, I'm not given up

And I falling for the first time in a long time
And everybody knows it, but you
Even the last try to fighting
I can't let you go
'Cause I know it's love, and I'm not given up

For the first time in a long time
And everybody knows it, but you
Even the last try to fighting
I can't let you go
'Cause I know it's love, and I'm not given up

Yeah, I'm not given up
