

Fly Away

Ross Copperman

And I know, what you don't know.
What it is, that makes you act this way.
Well you can change your ways.
And I have found, you're all alone.
You remenisce, upon you glory days.
That was just a passing phase.

Well, Castles in the skies, Sweet lullabies,
They sign their vide into the bitter times.
When words were hard to find.

And come fly away
Let go of all your pain,
and hear these words and say
its over
Well come fly away
we're free from all your chains,
and hear my voice and say

Cause life ends and death begins, this lonely journey to the other side
Lord lift her oh so high.
and lay you down, your soul tonight it's too long since you have even tried to open up your mind

Well january, march, december, may they leave you dreaming for another day to wish it all away.

And come fly away
Let go of all your pain,
and hear these words and say
its over
Well come fly away
we're free from all your chains,
and hear my voice and say.

Well I don't want a reason, to believe in all the seasons.
They just cover up the pain held inside.

Like endless fields of madness.
We circum to all that's past us.
And the cost of our emotions til we die.

Well, it's alright it's okay.
It's not gonna be the same,
You gotta fly away...

Come fly away
Let go of all your pain,
and hear these words and say, its over.
Well come fly away
we're free from all your chains,
and hear my voice and say. (2x)
