

sorry

Ross Copperman

I should've seen you
The way that you wanted me to
But I was unbending
I thought I had something to prove
Oh now look where that got me
I feel like I'm losing you

Sorry isn't enough
But it's all that I've got
It's all that I've got
So release me from the damage I've done
Cause you're all that I've got
You're all that I've got
You're all that I've got

Words were the weapon
That I should have never used
Spoken in anger
Believe me that wasn't the truth
Oh now look where that got us
I feel like I'm losing you

Sorry isn't enough
But it's all that I've got
It's all that I've got
So release me from the damage I've done
Cause you're all that I've got
You're all that I've got

Oh it's breaking my heart
Cause I see you drifting away
Oh now don't say it's over
And please reconsider the two of us

Sorry isn't enough
But it's all that I've got
It's all that I've got
So release me from the damage I've done
Cause you're all that I've got
You're all that I've got
You're all that I've got

(You're all that I've got)
