

Steal Your Heart

Ross Lynch

You like the good boys
So I'm not invited to the plans you make
When you're with your friends

But you know bad boys
You can't deny it
They can always show you where the fun begins

Hey now baby,
No doubt about it, girl
You drive me crazy
I'm pleading guilty to the way you make me
Wanna steal your heart
Steal your heart

Call me criminal
I won't deny you make me want it all,
Everything you are

So lock it up
Go on and try it
No matter what you do
I'm gonna steal your heart

I confess,
I kinda like it that you're innocent
Keeping up your guard

I'll break it down
So you can't hide it
No matter what you do
I'm gonna steal your heart

You're a good girl
The perfect picture of an angel's smile
From a magazine

But it's a new world
And I know so well the side of you
No one's ever seen

Hey now baby,
No doubt about it, girl
You drive me crazy
I'm pleading guilty to the way you make me
Wanna steal your heart
Steal your heart

Call me criminal
I won't deny you make me want it all,
Everything you are

So lock it up
Go on and try it
No matter what you do
I'm gonna steal your heart

I confess,
I kinda like it that you're innocent
Keeping up your guard

I'll break it down

You're gonna keep it
Just like a secret
Baby, believe me
You gotta free it
And you'll have everything you need

You like the good boys
So I'm not invited to the plans you make

But you know bad boys

Call me criminal
I won't deny you make me want it all,
Everything you are

So lock it up
Go on and try it
No matter what you do
I'm gonna steal your heart

I confess,
I kinda like it that you're innocent
Keeping up your guard

I'll break it down
I'm gonna steal your heart
