

Another Room

Rostam

When I come back I will have caught you alarmed
I'm in the city for a day, sleeping in the park
I was a little bit scared you wouldn't call me back
I was a little bit afraid of being way too sad
Then they come for me but I'm already gone
You never see me again, you wonder what went on
But little things you remember haunt the halls at night
Send a shiver to your [?]

So far the henchman have yet to come busting
But how do I tell you I'm still there
Can I have you?

And make you love you
But you're not alone
At least not yet

Give me just a second to remember when
We were lying in bed and our eyes were shut
And you turned to me and I won't forget
It wasn't what you said but the way you said it
Don't forget the words that are in your heart

I'm in the city for a day, sleeping in the park
I was a little bit afraid you wouldn't call me back
I was a little bit scared of being way too sad

And now you're on your own
But you're not alone
You won't see [?]
So please fuck up the world

Does it make you sad?
Does it make you mad?
Babe, we had a chance
But we lost it now

Then I see you waiting for me at the station
Reading a book, patiently waiting
[?] to go away
You don't know why
You don't know for what
You don't know
