

You said
Speak from your mind
The words that it finds
Come out of your soul
A part of the whole

You said
What does it change
Both of us know
After tonight there ain't no future

But I want you
And I want to
And I'm happy
When you're near me

Yeah I want you
And I want to
And I'm happy
When you're near me

You said
What's the emotion
That keeps you in motion
That keeps you
From staying by my side

You think I never needed anyone
I don't know... you might be right
But all of it is untold by the future

So I want you
And I want to
And I'm happy
When you're near me

Yeah I want you
And I want to
And I'm happy
When you're near me

The aperture
Opens up
To frame a photograph
That takes us out of us

The postcards edges
Start to smudge
But it don't change
The words we wrote down with love

Cuz I want you
And I want to
And I'm happy
When you're near me
