

Right Here

Rotimi

Baby, why you be flexing, askin' who texting?
When I'm right here with you, tell me what can I do?
To make you sleep better, to make you see clearly
That there's nobody else that can get near me

Girl, you know a nigga been on the bullshit
But we ain't really gotta talk about the bullshit
When I'm with you, girl, you bringing up the other chicks
I ain't even, I ain't talkin' 'bout 'em

I'm just trying to be in something different
You just want to know if I'm committed
I'm just tryin' to see if you don't know me
I just want to know if you the homie

Girl, I been had bitches and, girl, I been had riches and
Girl, I been around the world twice
I'm right here tonight, I'm right here tonight
What the fuck is we talking about, 'bout?
When nobody else in this house, house
Girl, I'm right here tonight, and we right here tonight
Why the complaining? It's not even worth it, 'cause we right here

Now I got her ass face down (Down, down, yeah) in the muhfuckin' bed
Beat the pussy up, like she owe a nigga bread
Eat the pussy up like she put it on some bread
Lock her ass down like she going in the feds (Aw yeah)

She work that pole like she strip (Baby, work that pole)
Play my position like pimpin' (Just like a pimp)
My baby, she just be trippin' (Trippin' yeah)
Just to get all my attention

What a nigga gotta do?
Show you that I wanna be true to you
And none of them don't mean nothing
And none of them don't mean nothing

Girl, I been had bitches and, girl, I been had riches and
Girl, I been around the world twice
I'm right here tonight, I'm right here tonight
What the fuck is we talking about, 'bout?
When nobody else in this house, house
Girl, I'm right here tonight, and we right here tonight
Why the complaining? It's not even worth it, 'cause we right here

I know I drive her crazy, maybe I'm strung out, baby
It could be something light, baby, wanna be all over you like gravy
You know I got the thing though, wanna feel you every angle
I know what you wanna do, fuck the bullshit they be sayin' to you
'Cause I know I wanna feel you like you feelin' me, baby
I'm on my shit (I'm on my shit)
And I love it when you just shut up and get on top
And you just ride this dick

Oh no, girl, I been had bitches and, girl, I been had riches and
Girl, I been around the world twice

I'm right here tonight, I'm right here tonight
What the fuck is we talking about, 'bout?
When nobody else in this house, house
Girl, I'm right here tonight, we right here tonight
Why the complaining? It's not even worth it, 'cause we right here
