Girl you know I got some long money
I've seen it all baby don't worry
Comparing you a no contest
I fall in love everyday I confess

In the mirror looking flawless that can no compete
All natural effortless beauty
If you could see yourself from my POV
You understand you're what I need

Cuz you got me feeling like you feeling like feeling like me yo
Feeling like you feeling like feeling like me yo
Baby in my eyes you can never do no wrong
I promise

One thing bout you whatever you do
You gon' make it look sexy
I be looking like a blessing
Always giving out pressure
One thing bout you whatever you do
You gon' make it look sexy
You ain't never have to try too hard
It's just in you baby

No makeup on I know it's real
Your purest vibes my favorite feel
Those long legs in the perfect heels
My candy rain you can have my soul 4 real
Every room you walk in you take over it
Type of energy you can't play wit'
You put that shit on baby you don't miss
Nobody can deny

One thing bout you whatever you do
You gon' make it look sexy
I be looking like a blessing
Always giving out pressure
One thing bout you whatever you do
You gon' make it look sexy
You ain't never have to try too hard
It's just in you baby
