

Warpaint

Rough Silk

Warpaint - warpaint ...

All contracts broken - your promises, too
Our heroes, they all died in vain
Words unspoken - you taught us to drink to kill the Emptiness and pain

But we - are leaving together
Like little white mice
We sure do look nice
But we ain't
'Cause this is : warpaint

Mighty tribes once free and proud - now living in chains
The time has come to to get angry and loud
What you hear's our drums calling the rains

And we - are leaving together
Like little white mice
We sure do look nice
But we ain't
'Cause this is : warpaint
