

Put On

Rowdy Rebel

Put on for my block everytime my lil niggas need me
Diamonds dancing on my wrist that shit looking like C Breezy
I can get him killed without lifting a finger, that shit easy
We don't shut our eyes we walk niggas down and do niggas greasy

Real street nigga if I don't make it in rap I know how to hustl e
I use to flip packs, I used to move the work up in the duffle
Now I'm living out my dreams and my pinky ring looking like a p uddle
Rich nigga make the bitch eat the dick and tell her I don't wan na cuddle
I been locked down so many years sometimes I don't got no patie nce
I been trapping so damn hard sometimes I need vacations
My lil bro wanna slide sometimes but that nigga on probation
I got shooters on standby I can put them in rotation Nigga I could roll with killers, I seen friends slime they frie nds out Thought he was your mans, you got them bands he ain't your mans now
Find out where he hide them racks then later he got fanned down Drop a hundred on him that's the only way he'll stand down

Put on for my block everytime my lil niggas need me
Diamonds dancing on my wrist that shit looking like C Breezy
I can get him killed without lifting a finger, that shit easy
We don't shut our eyes we walk niggas down and do niggas greasy

Pop out in your hood and spin that whole bitch till your block empty
I'm with all the shooters and all the robbers, he got cops with him
Hundred in that chop, we shoot the glock until the shots empty
I put forgiatos on my new cullin' and my drop bentley Shine with all the guys if he ain't gang them niggas dead to me I could spend two racks and have lil cuz come bring his head to me
I pour out my sprite without the can and throw the red in it Fell asleep from countin' you know the trap house got a bed in it
Sold a half a brick that shit was short I took a onion off
I can't keep a plug fronting work cuz I'm running off
I be iffy bout who I be servin', niggas love to talk Bro just hit the lick with all blue beams and a ton of salt

Put on for my block everytime my lil niggas need me
Diamonds dancing on my wrist that shit looking like C Breezy

We don't shut our eyes we walk niggas down and do niggas greasy
