

(I Know) A Girl Called Jonny

Rowland S. Howard

I know a girl called Jonny
She's a bullet, she's a villainess
In my silver dress, I'm the disasteress
Combing out her long straight hair

Jonny bangs the drums

She's my narcotic lollipop
(I put my fingers in his mouth)
She's my narcotic lollipop
(I put my fingers in his mouth)

I know a girl called Jonny
She's an impossibility
I'm an alchemist in my astronaut's dress
Changing all the girls into boys

Jonny bangs the drums

She's my narcotic lollipop
(I put my fingers in his mouth)
She's my narcotic lollipop
(I put my fingers in his mouth)

He's a pin-up poster
High school crush
He's full sugar U.V. gloss
He's a new dance, he zips me up
He's changing all the boys into girls
