

Is It Too Late To Try

Roy Ayers

Walked into party, looked all around
Didn't think I'd see you, just came to get down
Suddenly I saw you, my heart did too
How was I to know it wasn't really you?

Baby, you've changed
I don't know the reason why
Is it too late to try?

Looked into your eyes, so surprised
Could it be you don't remember me?
Something I did or something I said
I don't really seem to know your head

Baby, you've changed
I don't know the reason why
Is it too late to try again?

Baby, you've changed, baby, you've changed
Baby, you've changed, baby, you've changed
Baby, you've changed, baby, you've changed
Baby, you've changed, baby, you've changed

Baby, you've changed, baby, you've changed
Baby, you've changed, baby, you've changed
Baby, you've changed, baby, you've changed
Baby, you've changed, baby, you've changed

Where have you gone, the love I knew?
A definite change has come over you
I know that time brings about a change
It's only been two days, I think that's strange

Baby, you've changed
I don't know the reason why
Is it too late to try?
