

Melody Maker

Roy Ayers

Melody maker, play it for me
Life and all its melodies
Melody maker, play it for me
The mysteries that surround me
Everything does change, this I have learned
And if I'm to see myself through
I'll need to know how life can flow
Play me your sweet melody
Melody

Melody maker, lead me to know
The forms that each man's heart, man's heart can be
Melody maker, lead me to know
The discords and harmonies, ooh-wee
Then when I have grown old
And the world treats me cold
I'll continue my life with a smile, oh, a smile
And if one should ask what life's about
I'll sing, I'll sing your sweet, sweet, sweet melody

Melody maker, play it for me
Life and all its melodies
Melody maker, play it for me
The mysteries that surround me
Everything does change, this I have learned
And if I'm to see my way through
I'll need to know how life can flow
Play me your sweet melody

Melody, yeah, yeah
Da-da, da-da-da-da
Da-da, da-da-da-da, da-da-da
Da-da, da-da-da-da, da-da-da-da-da
