

Running Away

Roy Ayers

Dippy-doo, run, run, run
Dippy-doo, run, run, run

Hey, I'm getting my bag
And I'm running away now
'Cause you've been mean to me
And I've been good to you
And I've been oh so strong
Hey ya-ya-ha-ha!

You don't spend the time when I'm in need
We don't love each other like we used to do
We don't love each other like we used to do
Running, running, running, far away
You don't do the things you used to do

Hey, I'm getting my bag
And I'm running away now
'Cause you've been mean to me
And I've been good to you
And I've been oh so strong
Hey ya-ya-ha-ha!

Can't you see I need ya?
Can't you see I need ya?
Can't you see I need ya?
Can't you see I need ya?
Can't you see I need ya?
Can't you see I need ya?
Can't you see I need ya?
Can't you see I need ya?

Running, running, running, far away
You don't do the things you used to do (Running away, yes I'm running away)
You don't do the things you used to do (Running away, know I'm working to stay)
You don't spend the time when I'm in need (Running away, yes I'm running away)
You don't spend the time when I'm in need (Running away, I must go far away)
We don't love each other like we used to do
We don't love each other like we used to do
Running, running, running, far away

You don't do the things you used to do
You don't spend the time when I'm in need (Running away, yes I'm running away)
We don't love each other like we used to do (Running away, know I'm working to stay)
Baby I'll come back, another day (Running away, yes I'm running away)
