

Shack Up, Pack Up, It's Up (When I'm Gone)

Roy Ayers

When I'm gone, you'll still be there
You'll still be thinking, waiting, contemplating on my return
I know that time is hard to come by
For us to meditate upon the things we've got

Now you say you wanna (shack up, pack up, it's up)
Now you say you wanna (shack up, pack up, it's up)

Baby I know just how you feel
About the lonely days and nights of where I'm gone
We can be close when we're apart
[?] me know for sure that there is love

Now you say you wanna (shack up, pack up, it's up)
 Now you say you wanna (shack up, pack up, it's up)
 Now you say you wanna (shack up, pack up, it's up)
 Now you say you wanna (shack up, pack up, it's up)
 (Doo do do doo)

I know that when we were together
I had sensations, fun within my heart and soul
Now you be yours, and I'll be mine
Now that we've found ourselves, everything is fine

Now you say you wanna (shack up, pack up, it's up)
 Now you say you wanna (shack up, pack up, it's up)
 Now you say you wanna (shack up, pack up, it's up)
 Now you say you wanna (shack up, pack up, it's up)
 (Doo do do doo)

[illegible]

Now you say you wanna shack
Now you say you wanna pack
Now you say you wanna shack
