

Sweet Tears

Roy Ayers

Baby, though I'm leaving, don't you cry
I'm the one that's grieving, you know why
Love is like a wild bird you can't tie
Free to stay forever or to fly
Though my heart will always stay
Gotta make my getaway

Got to say goodbye
Got to say goodbye

Sweet tears just keep falling from your eyes
That's the only trouble with goodbyes
Sweet tears just keep falling from your eyes
That's the only trouble with goodbyes

Broken dreams and promises
That's the way love always is

Please, please, please don't ask me why
Please don't ask me why
