

There's A Master Plan

Roy Ayers

Do do do dem do do
Do do doo do do do
Do do do do do do
There's a master plan
Bringing us together once again
Like it used to be
In the promised land where dreams come true
There's a master plan
Working to bring all our minds together
The working of this plan
Is based upon the things that we do now
Let's bring our minds together
Together together
Let's bring our minds together
Together yeah yeah
With this master plan
Bringing us together once again
Cause everything that is Everything that is supposed to be
Guess that's lucky for me
([?] it wouldn't be the same)
I understand
There is a master plan

([?] it wouldn't be the same)
I understand
There's a master plan

Bring our minds together
Together together
Bring our minds together
Together yeah yeah
There's a master plan
There's a master plan
There's a master plan
There's a master plan
There's a master plan
There's a master plan
There's a master plan
There's a master plan

There's a master plan
Bringing us together once again
Like it used to be
There's a master plan
