

Rain

Roy Blair

When was the last time we sat in silence?
Was there a moment when you decided
It wouldn't get better
Why are we together?
Is it just whether or not? Yeah

Sometimes I'm not there when you touch me
When you feel the need to say you love me
I need to feel alone to feel something
I haven't before
I've been running down, yeah, I go
That's our way to let go
It's a crowded affair
I'll find you wait there
I took the train to Kyoto
I tried calling you back more than once
There's something out there that I need
Feel it inside of me

Listen along
Parts of my heart that you would discover
And if it was dark, I wouldn't run for cover
Listen along
Parts of my heart that you would discover
And if it was dark, I wouldn't run for cover

I can't find the strength
In me to let you go
I'll tell a friend
How do you know?
But I belong somewhere out there
Get it out there
But I can't run out there
So out there is where I run

Listen along
Parts of my heart that you would discover
And if it was dark, I wouldn't run for cover
Listen along
Parts of my heart that you would discover
And if it was dark, I wouldn't run for cover
