

Heading South

Roy Orbison

I want to talk to folks back home again, to walk along a lonely country lane
To spend some time with that woman of mine, heading south, head ing south
Things look bright and I feel alright yeah I'm heading south

Heading south to see the sun go down on camp fire light, to joi n the singing at night
Heading south to cotton rows and honeysuckle bloom
Under the cumberland moon heading south, heading south

Give me room to travel on my way to a place where dreams all fa de away
Where the river flows and tobacco grows heading south heading s outh
Cause the sun is hot and people love a lot yeah I'm heading sou th

Heading south to see the sun go down on camp fire light, to joi
n the singing at night
Heading south to cotton rows and honeysuckle bloom under the cu mberland moon
Heading south, heading south
