

Just Another Name for Rock and Roll

Roy Orbison

Well you can act like a monkey, shake your hands do the limbo t ill you can't stand, Well you can mash your potata, hippy hippy shake, but the beats
' still wild and your feet still ache I say it's just another name for rock and roll everybody, every body sing
It's just another name for rock and roll, rock and roll

Well you can do the duck, walk your dog down the street, loop t he loop to a swingin beat,
You can twist and shout and do the stomp, a chase a chicken on a pony romp ah but It's just another name for rock and roll everybody, everybody s ing,
It's just another name for rock and roll, rock and roll

Well they all try to shake it another way, but they rock, they roll just the same

They only call it by another name and I don't care what they sa y, woah, oh, oh

Down in the jungle where the tree tops are steep, they get the fever for a bongo beat,
They do the ubangie stomp, the safari hop, do the monkey until they drop

Ah but it's just another name for rock and roll everybody, ever ybody sing
It's just another name for rock and roll, everybody, everybody sing
It's just another name for rock and roll everybody, everybody s ing.....
