Leaving Makes The Rain Come Down

Roy Orbison

Don't try to tell me it's all right
When she's not here with me tonight
Oh, I can hear the rain
And leaving makes the rain come down

I know she's gone away before
But if she was coming back any more
I wouldn't hear the rain
Oh, leaving makes the rain come down

Every lonely raindrop seems to say
I've lost her love somehow
Oh I keep hearing raindrops telling me
She's gone for ever now
Yeah, leaving makes the rain come down
Leaving makes the rain come down

Don't try to tell me what to do
It's not your heart she broke in two
And you don't hear the rain
Oh, leaving makes the rain come down

I can't make the rain stop
Every day it keeps on coming down
I've been hearing raindrops
Ever since my baby ain't around

Yeah, leaving makes the rain come down
Leaving makes the rain come down
