

Hate Me

Roy Woods

'Cause you hate me
Woah-oh, oh-woah

I know you wanna see me fall and crash, 'cause you hate me
And with you, I'm barely spendin' any time, you think that I'm crazy
I know you, uh, I know you, uh, I know you hate me
I know you, I know you, I know you hate me

On me
Girl, you hatin' on me, got no faith in me, got no trust in me (Oh)
I was only there for you, makin' bands with you but you switched on me
In your city when I touch down, you rockin' with the sound and you keep it l owkey
And I gotta get a buss down but first I gotta get another one for the team
Buss, baby, don't cuss, you ain't need to fuss no more
Said you want love, not lust no more
Said you been hurt, can't trust no more
Said you wanna travel, I'ma bring you on tour
Take you like some Gravol when I'm sick of these hoes
And you ain't my girl but I treat you like gold
Put diamonds on you when your heart gets cold

I know you wanna see me fall and crash, 'cause you hate me
And with you, I'm barely spendin' any time, you think that I'm crazy
I know you, uh, I know you, uh, I know you hate me

I know you wanna see me fall and crash, 'cause you hate me
I need an answer, baby girl, it's, "Yes", "No" or a "Maybe"
I seen you started movin' different ways, since I turned famous
I know you, uh, I know you, uh, I know you hate me
I know you, I know you, I know you hate me (Coi Leray, yeah)

Now the party's over, I'd rather you call me when you sober
I had to realize success is lonely, I had a dream I killed my opponent
Smoke an ounce to the face, I'm a real life stoner
Heart so cool but my wrist colder
Mix the '42 with pineapple soda
I been goin' through a lot, just need you closer
Yeah, I don't got time for the drama
Baby, save your drama for your momma
Broke her heart but the bandaide designer
I'ma skrrt off in a 'Rari, I just need to know if you ridin'
I'm a boss, I don't need nobody
Ever since I came up in this shit, they started hatin'
It's not you, it's me, baby, just have a little more patience

I know you wanna see me fall and crash, 'cause you hate me
And with you, I'm barely spendin' any time, you think that I'm crazy
I know you, uh, I know you, uh, I know you hate me
I know you, I know you, I know you hate me

You're so full of it
'Bout time you get put in your place
No, there ain't no foolin' me
Yeah, I see all the moves that you make
Got time but you can't let it waste
Let me know if you think you need space

Feet on the gas but you wanna hit the brakes
'Cause life fast, are you ready for this pace?
Baby, I'm comin' just now

I need an answer, baby girl, it's, "Yes", "No" or a "Maybe" (Is it "Yes" or "No"?)

I seen you started movin' different ways, since I turned famous (Since I turned famous)

I know you, uh, I know you, uh, I know you hate me (I know you, uh, hate)

I know you, I know you, I know you hate me
