

Unsettling

Roy Woods

Stuck on your bae side, don't wanna waste time but I will wait for it Callin' you late night, said that she's rollin' up, she's still a smoker
You were the first love to be the last heartbreak that never st ayed around
You never hit my line, when you told me, "Don't be a stranger, boy"
Girl, you been twistin' my head for years, now I'm full one-eight
So much wrong with ourselves, who's fault is it really, baby?
And we can blame all we want but it ain't gonna solve anything
Girl, I know you know

We've gone so deep now and it's so unsettling
Feel it when you breathe, girl, it's so unsettling
I can barely feel my body, girl, it's so unsettling
Ooh, ooh-ooh, yeah, girl, it's so unsettling
I'm drownin' in our past, girl, and it's so unsettling

Ooh, girl
Shake that money maker
Mrs. Heart breaker, Mrs. Risk-taker
Goin' out my way for you and yet we still break up, that's a de al breaker
Oh, mami, do you always look this perfect when you wake up?
Why you always look this perfect with no make up?
You gon' take a shot, you fightin' demons in the club (Damn)
You knew what it was with me
Hate myself because somehow, I gave you all of me
And the blame somehow always still fall on me
I'm switch the line so you can't call on me
Ten times over for the world can see Things that you've done are just unsettling
Oh, baby, they're unsettling

We've gone so deep now and it's so unsettling (So)
Feel it when you breathe, girl, it's so unsettling
I can barely feel my body, girl, it's so unsettling
Ooh, ooh-ooh, yeah, girl, it's so unsettling
I'm drownin' in our past, girl, and it's so unsettling
