

Why

Roy Woods

Bump when you drive by
We'll get high, 4:27 in the night
Show off when you wanna, babe
I hope you know it's alright, I don't mind
Shawty, show me your thighs, don't be shy, baby
Don't ride, I'll loition you down or would you rather oil, maybe, it's smoother when you ride
Fall in my arms girl, wake up to me
Let's sleep with no clothes again
Am I talking through you or is you singing through me
What's with all our lies again

But this time I wanna know why, I can't sleep without you to my right
But this time I wanna know why, I can't sleep without you to my right

Put me to sleep with your voice, babe
Don't leave me with the choice, babe
Oh please, I don't need no extra love off of you

You can't run outta love
There is nothing that's too much
Can you take me real far? Take me the whole way, baby
Grab my hand, don't lose faith, I have so much in you
I know when to give you space
Cause I know, know, know that I mess up
Got you feeling like you're 'bout throw a left hook
I throw my hook into your sea while it's flooding my bed
They have done so much to me but can't throw off my head
I'm so sorry that you didn't see the love I had
Oh well, guess we better run
Only the thoughts confused all at once
Know I was late showing up to prom, but I'll show you later, surprise in a box.

But this time I wanna know why, I can't sleep without you to my right
But this time I wanna know why, I can't sleep without you to my right

I'm sorry for so much, I'm sorry for so much
I'm sorry for so much, I'm sorry for so much
I'm sorry for so much, I'm sorry for so much
I'm sorry for so much, I'm sorry for so much
