

Never

Royal Bliss

My head is pounding like a drum
The things I could have done
But there was nothing I could do

And this was never meant to be
And it's not what you need
But I know we'll make it through

I ain't ever gonna give up
I ain't ever gonna change
Baby when you see me coming
You will always know my face
I ain't ever gonna look back
I will never be estranged
Never gonna tell you sorry
I won't walk away
I will not walk away

A promise that I could never keep
It hurt when I would speak
Cause I knew it wasn't true

The weather oh how it had changed
But It was us that chose the rain
It was not because of you

I ain't ever gonna give up
I ain't ever gonna change
Baby when you see me coming
You will always know my face
I ain't ever gonna look back
I will never be estranged
Never gonna tell you sorry
I won't walk away
I will not walk away

Ooooh, ooooh
I will not walk away

Ooooh, ooooh
I will not walk away

I ain't ever gonna give up
I ain't ever gonna change
Baby when you see me coming
You will always know my face
I ain't ever gonna look back
I will never be a stranger
Never gonna tell you sorry
I will not walk away
I will not walk away

I ain't ever gonna give up
I ain't ever gonna change
Baby when you see me coming
